

• SUCCESS •

Senior Brittany Foster accepts the region championship trophy on behalf of the volleyball team for their accomplishments throughout the season. Year after year, the girls display great teamwork, good attitudes, and represent with pride.

• NEW ROYALTY •

Casey Brazell and Brittni Smith float on air after being crowned 2003 Prom King and Queen. Seniors danced the night away as their high school years slowly came to an end.

• TOGETHERNESS •

Kindergartners enjoy raising the colorful parachute with the help of good timing and air currents. This event was just one of the many fulfilled events planned by Carolyn Walters and the PTO during the annual Field Day.

• LEFT...RIGHT...LEFT •

Sixth through twelfth grade students "volunteer" for "active duty" as Michael Walden serves as their drill instructor. Walden is a motivational speaker who did a middle and upper school assembly program on the importance of keeping the body healthy and drug-free.

• It's MORE BLESSED TO GIVE •

Joe, Josh, Brooks, Will, and Casey bag up all the Angel Tree Christmas gifts and prepare to deliver them. This annual Beta Club project was once again a worthy effort and rousing success of collecting donations for the less fortunate.
