BOYZ IN THA HOOD: Cooper Muller and Damon Ammons sport their wacky hats on Hat Day during Spirit Week. They were among many who wore creative outfits during the week.

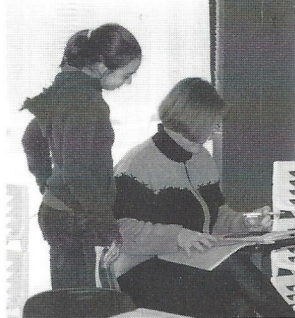

FLUSH THE CAVS: The sixth grade girls get their mascot set up for judging during the homecoming week macot decorating contest. This energetic group won the award for designing the best mascot.

EVERYBODY SCREAM!: The sixth graders scream till they are red in the face during one of the pep rallies. They showed great class spirit during all the pep rallies.

CAN I GET YOUR AUTOGRAPH?: Zach Burroughs and Myles Rowe sign their names on the Eagle Code banner. Both Myles and Zach were strong representatives of their sixth grade class.

I HAVE A QUESTION?: Teacher Lou Ann Coleman helps out one of her students, Jenna Burroughs, with a problem. Mrs. Coleman always made time to give her students extra help when needed.
