

JUNIORS

• MONEY BROWN II •

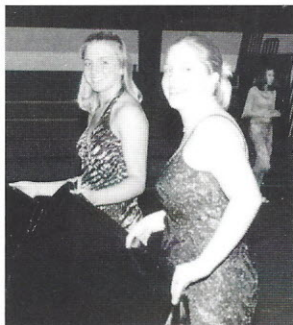

After members of the Class of 04' receive their class rings, Treasurer Boyd Brown gives a closing speech for the ceremony. The juniors were all pleased to finally get to put their RWA rings on their fingers.

• BON ANNIVERSAIRE •

Lindsey Hamilton takes time from her birthday lunch and social hour for a big smile for the camera. Lindsey was always seen smiling and was very spirited.

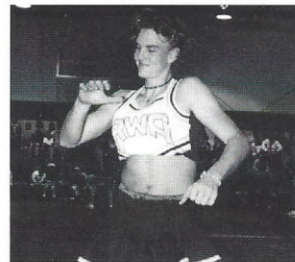

Country Come to Town: Junior Boyd Brown stops and poses for the camera on Farmer Day. Although Boyd isn't a big Clemson fan, he looked very nice in orange and white.

The Clean-Up Crew: Brittany Melvin and Mary Gray Bunting take time out from cleaning for a quick smile. These two girls, as well as the rest of the junior class, worked well together to make the Valentine Dance a successful class fundraiser.

Jingle Bell Rock: The junior girls were in charge of putting the dance together for the Christmas play. The girls were really creative and made the play fun for everyone.

Phat Guy in a Little Shirt!: Roe Coleman breaks it down for the pep rally crowd. Roe showed enthusiasm throughout the week, but this outfit was by far his most "phlattering".

Family Tradition: Andrea Lyles receives her long-awaited ring from her parents, Jimmy and Tandy Lyles. The Ring Ceremony was a tradition started by the Class of 2003.
