I Can't Look!: Tweedie Mills puts on a brave face as she handles a slinky reptile. This hands-on project provided great learning experiences for her and her students.

Checking It Twice: Mrs. Miller jots down some reminders concerning the next food order. Mrs. Miller, "Miss" Cheri, and Mrs. Zinzer worked well together preparing the cafeteria menu each day.

May I Have Your Attention, Please?: Robin Hazen always looks at home behind the mike. Whenever the situation arose, Mrs. Hazen often transformed into RWA's Mistress of Ceremonies.

Academic Mentor: When "Miss Nick" gets behind the podium, you can be sure she will lead us to tears, applause, or perhaps a bit of both. A gifted public speaker, she is one of RWA's most beloved instructors.

Stylin' & Profil'n: Ashlee Nunn's easy smile and upbeat nature make her popular as both a teacher and a coach. Mrs. Nunn, the youngest alumna on staff, re-lived her RWA years by participating in the Spirit Week dress-up days.
