

Mr. Bradley Oates
Fifth Grade Instructor

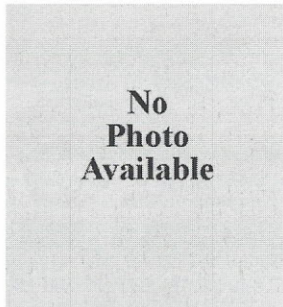

Mrs. Pamela Rambo
Five Year Old Kindergarten
Instructor

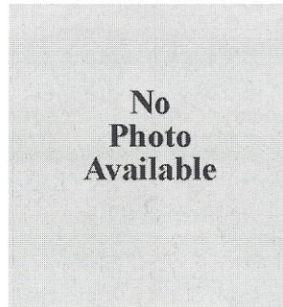

Mrs. Karen Ray
Five Year Old Kindergarten
Instructor

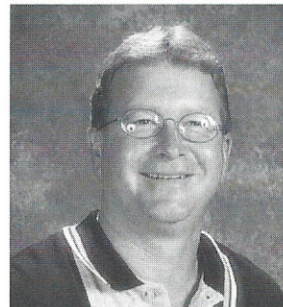

Ms. Helen Rexrode
Fourth Grade Instructor

Mr. Lonzell Robinson
Custodian

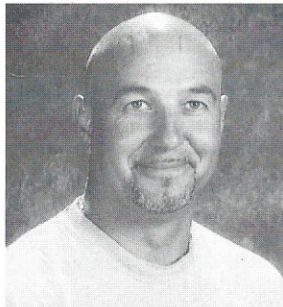

Mrs. Hope Rowe
Lower School Art Instructor

Mr. Jack Sink
Lower, Middle, & High School
Physical Education Instructor

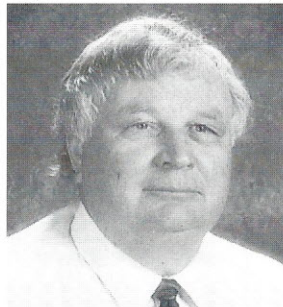

Mrs. Phyllis Tant
High School History &
Government Instructor

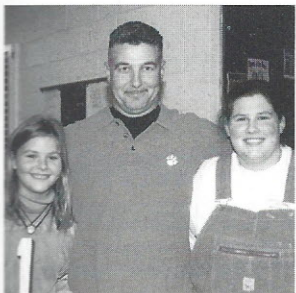

Mr. Wally Weir
Athletic Director & High School
Physical Education Instructor

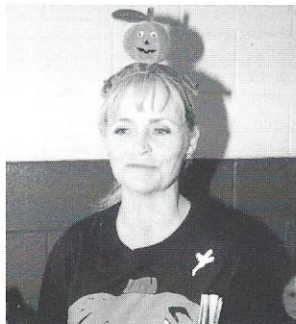

Mrs. Donna Wilkins
Lower & High School
Computer Science Instructor

Mr. Rob Williams
High School
Spanish & Latin Instructor

Clemson Rules! Wally Weir, Grace Wilkins, and Allison Coleman show their true colors on "College Day." Although garnet and black are Coach Weir's colors by choice, he reluctantly transformed into a Tiger for a day.

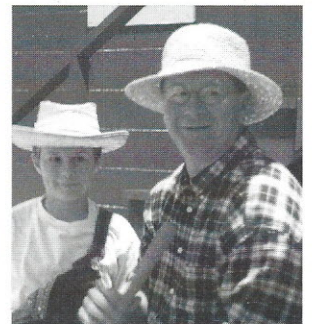

All Decked Out: Looks like Mrs. Ray magically changed into the Great Pumpkin! To the delight of her young students, Mrs. Ray often decked out in seasonal attire to welcome the next holiday.

Holiday Spirit: Mrs. Rexrode joins in the holiday spirit with a beautifully decorated Christmas tree in her classroom. Mrs. Rexrode's students participated in many creative projects throughout the year.

I Dare You: Bradley Oates gets all tied up with his snakey friend, "Mr. Boa." A bit reluctant at first, Coach Oates and Mr. Boa became close "friends" as a result of this meeting.

You Been Farming Long?: Myles Rowe and Jack Sink live a farmer's life for a day during RWA's annual Spirit Week. Coach Sink's love for his job and caring attitude was reflected by his popularity among his students and players.