

BASKETBALL

Soaring To Victory

• SHAKE 'N' BAKE •

Eighth grader Michael Robinson fakes one way and goes another in this game against Wardlaw. Michael was a late addition to the team, transferring mid-way through the season.

• YA GOTTA MAKE FREE THROWS •

Sophomore Corey Sims shoots a free throw in an away game against Wardlaw. Making free throws was key to the success of the JV Eagles.

• HE SHOOTS, HE SCORES •

Martin Caulder, an eighth grader, puts up a 3-pointer in a game against Carolina Academy. Martin's athleticism earned him a starting position when Brenton moved up to play varsity mid-way through the season.

• CAN'T HOLD ME •

William Ladd drives to the basket past a Heathwood Hall defender. The youngest starter, William's excellent ball handling skills and 3-point shooting kept the JV Eagles in many games.

• TAKIN IT UP STRONG •

Freshman point guard Taylor Bell takes the ball to the hole. Taylor was an excellent leader and a vital part of the team's success.

• THE AIR UP THERE •

Ninth grader Ryan Douglass soars above the Heathwood defense and puts up a shot. Ryan was the team's second leading scorer and a top rebounder.