

VOLLEYBALL

Can You Dig It?

• READY AND WAITING •

Eighth grader Ashley Swearingen waits very patiently for the ball to be served in her direction. Ashley's anticipation and natural love for the game made her playing experience even more enjoyable.

• EAGLE EYE •

While fully focused, Rebekah Harkins awaits the ball coming down so she can serve it up. Rebekah improved her serving skills throughout the season.

• SERVIN' WITH STYLE •

Eighth grader Kala Bell serves to the other team in hopes of scoring a point. Kala's youth and experience will be mighty helpful in the years to come.

• GREAT PASS! •

Seventh grader Kasey Parris passes the ball to a fellow teammate with good form. Kasey's skills and leadership abilities helped the j.v. volleyball team capture many victories.

• AIMING HIGH •

Anna Burns, one of many eighth graders on the team, is determined to aim high so she can get her serve across the net. Anna proved that big things do come in small packages.

• CALL THE BALL •

This group of players pays close attention to put the ball in play. This young volleyball team learned court responsibilities and showed hard work and dedication along with gaining life-long friendships.
