

FOOTBALL

Tossing the Pigskin...

• TIME TO TALK •

Head Coach Wally Weir uses a time out to give his players a breather. Time outs often were used to encourage the team and point out needed adjustments.

• GO JONESSEY! •

Junior running back Mikell Jones escapes the Holly Hill tackler to pick up yardage for the Eagles. Mikell's intensity and love for the game made him a fierce competitor.

• CRAZY EIGHT •

Tailback Wade Coleman, a tenth grader, tries hard to break free of the Cavalier defensive player. Dedication and strength were fundamental to Wade's efforts as a total team player.

• RUN, JOSH, RUN •

Fullback Josh Allen evades a Ben Lippen tackler in time to go head to head with the next one. Josh always put forth 100% effort and played aggressively.

• SWEEPING SAMMY •

Sam Arnette, Senior veteran tailback, takes the pitch and speedily sweeps around the Lion's line. The offensive team often relied upon Sam's speed and agility to pick up much needed yardage.

• LET'S GO FELLAS! •

Senior Kicker John Sanders puts his foot into the ball on the opening kick-off. John was also called upon to contribute his football skills as cornerback and tight end.