

BASKETBALL

Varsity Girls Capture Region Title

• It's MONEY!! •

Junior Meredith Brown shoots her infamous "in your face" shot against the Greenwood Christian defender. Meredith's shooting accuracy earned her the nickname "Money Brown."

• PULLING UP FOR THE SHOT! •

Freshmen Jill Wagers puts up a shot while in closely-guarded Heathwood Hall territory. Both Jill and Brice were moved up from the '01-'02 successful j.v. program to put their basketball skills to work at the varsity level this season.

• SWISHER SWEET! •

Senior Brittany Foster shoots for three in the game against Cardinal Newman. Brittany's athleticism, ball handling skills, and love for the game made her an excellent 4-AA Player of the Year selection.

• RUTHIE ON THE MOVE! •

Junior Ruthie Phillips looks down the court to find an open teammate. Ruthie's speed and quickness were her biggest assets and contributions to the team.

• GIMME THE BALL •

During the game against the Lady Bobcats of Carolina, senior Meredyth Lyles calls for a pass from a teammate. One of Meredyth's strengths was her offensive ability under the basket.

• LOOKIN' FOR A TEAMMATE •

Rachel Goldin, a sophomore, posts up to find an open teammate in a home game against Heathwood. Although Rachel was a varsity "rookie" player, she worked extremely hard to contribute to the team's success.