

• A FAMILY EVENT •

The Arnette family stops for a quick pose before taking off to the dance floor. This family was usually seen together celebrating during quite a few events as Sam enjoyed his final year at RWA.

• KEEPING AFLOAT •

Server Lindsay Parris brightens the evening by lighting some extinguished candles. The servers and valets made sure the prom went smoothly, only stopping for a dance or two along the way.

• THE MINDS BEHIND THE MAGIC •

The junior class takes a break from decorating to admire what they've done. In one week's time the juniors transformed the gym into a beautiful midnight garden like none before.

• WHAT A MOMENT •

Senior Sponsor Patti Edwards proudly crowns shaky Britni Smith 2003 Prom Queen. This honor is especially meaningful because it was decided by members of the junior class, and Britni was a popular choice.

• WORDS OF ADVICE •

Reverend Marc Chapman speaks to the high school student body addressing the many concerns present on prom night. Students listened respectfully, signed the Prom Promise, and truly heard what was said.

• LETTING LOOSE •

Senior John Sanders takes center stage to show off his dancing talent. Prom night allowed the students to let go and simply have a good time, obviously John did!
