HOKEY POKEY!

Kellen and Sally "do the hokey pokey, and turn themselves around," at the always fun Square Dance. The three year olds enjoyed showing off what they had learned from their teachers.

EVERYBODY, SAY CHEESE!

Lydia, Dru, Kellen, Cara, and Sally take time from their Christmas party to pose for a picture. These little ones seemed to enjoy their first Christmas party together at RWA.

LITTLE 'OL LADY LYDIA!

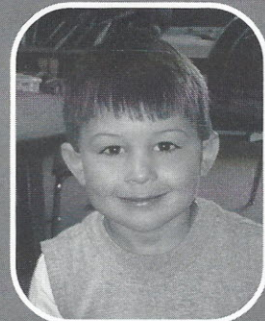

Lydia Wilder celebrates the 100th day of school by dressing like an elderly lady. All the kindergartners had a good time celebrating this milestone in the school year.

What have you learned this year?

"I learned how to say my ABC's."

"I learned how to write my name."

"I learned how to count to 20."
