

GREAT JOB, LADIES!

These girls celebrate their victory after a tough first match against King. The team managed to work together to achieve a successful inaugural season.

SERVE IT UP

Seventh grader Lauren Pendergrass stretches to serve the ball in the game vs. King. Lauren's serving ability, along with her teammates', improved throughout the season.

BUMP IT!

Caroline Bryson prepares to bump the ball across to the other side of the net for a valuable point. Caroline showed a lot of enthusiasm both on and off the court.

READY TO DELIVER

Ally gets ready to serve the ball in the away match vs. King. Even as a freshman, Ally had no trouble making contributions to the success of the team.

TWO OF A KIND

Grace Wilkins subs in to take Kelsey Ray's position on the court. Kelsey and Grace each proved to be strong and enduring players.

