

IT!

Brittany Melvin squares up for a teammate Shealy Broome to go to second. Both players play the game with intensity and

DOWN AND READY!

Freshman catcher Lea Allen is down and ready for the next batter as she gets the pitch signs from the dugout. Lea's love of softball was evident in the way she played the game.

HEADS UP!

Caroline McMeekin, a sub-freshman, looks to make a play. As one of the youngest varsity players, she earned valuable game time experience.

DIAMOND DUO

Seniors Ashley Mills and Brittini Anderson work together defensively to get the next out. As veteran players, these infielders were called upon to step up and show leadership skills often.

Softball

	OPP.	RWA
St. Joseph	10	0
Greenwood Christian	3	5
King	6	7
St. Joseph	4	2
Great Falls	8	18
Great Falls	15	10
Westminister Catawba	10	12
Greenwood Christian	13	17
Cardinal Newman	17	5
Cardinal Newman	20	4
King	16	13
Thomas Sumter	2	8
Westminister Catawba	6	5
King	5	6
Thomas Sumter	8	3
Greenwood Christian	10	15
Wardlaw	14	0
Hammond	13	9
Wardlaw	14	2
Colleton Prep	15	0
Marlboro	7	3

*AA State Playoffs

2004 VARSITY SOFTBALL TEAM

Sitting(l-r): Shealy Broome, Brittini Anderson, and Ashley Gantt. Kneeling: Lea Allen, Jessica Hollis, Emily Matthews, Leigh Connor, Caroline McMeekin. Standing: Head Coach Donna Miles, Allison Coleman - statistician, Jill Wagers, Ashley Mills, Rebekah Harkins, Brice Porter, Jessica Sink, Brittany Melvin, and Coach Maggie Bryant. Varsity Softball

