

GO HARD, SWING LEVEL!

Ryan Foster swings hard to get contact on the Laurens' pitch. Ryan is a valuable outfielder and pinch runner for the team.

RUN, DANIEL, RUN!

Freshman Daniel Porter rounds third base after being waved in by Coach Sink. Daniel used his speed to contribute many stolen bases and runs to the team.

TALKIN' IT OVER

During a time out the infield meets at the mound to discuss game strategy. Although the guys took each game seriously, they also found time for fun.

THROW ME THE BALL!

Brenton Lyles gets in position to make the tag on first. Brenton had a successful season playing first base.

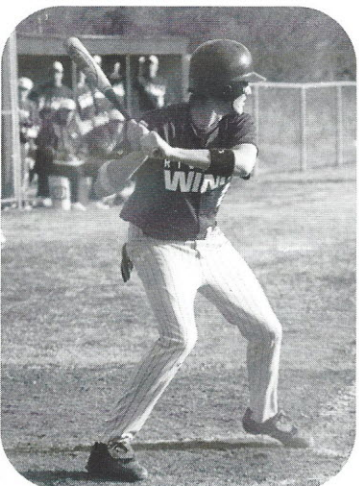

O, SAY CAN YOU SEE?

The baseball team salutes the American flag as the National Anthem plays. Playing the National Anthem before athletic events has been a tradition throughout American history.

ON THE HEAT!

Pitcher Jim Wagers winds up to throw a fastball over home plate. His love and dedication for baseball is evident in every game he played.

WAITING FOR THE PITCH

Roe Coleman eagerly waits for the next pitch. Roe displayed senior leadership throughout the 2004 baseball season.

ANOTHER STRIKE!

Sophomore Taylor Bell hurls another fastball into the strike zone. Taylor did a great job on the mound the entire season.