

Risin' to the Occasion

SALUTIN' SOUTH CAROLINA

These young "sandlappers" treat the audience to some of Mrs. Nelle McMaster Sprott's songs about South Carolina. A native of the community, Mrs. Sprott's special music reflects her love of the area and its natural resources.

PATRIOTISM

Decked out in red, white, and blue, a group of fifth grade girls steps forward to sing a special song. All of Ms. Livings's music students worked hard to learn their speaking parts and special music.

CHOIR CREATURES

First graders Jessica Douglas and Jordan Parris get all decked out from head to toe as they each portray one of God's many creatures. The students enjoyed dressing up to perform for their parents and family members.
