WORDS OF WISDOM

Valedictorian Ashley Mills presents the commencement address to the senior class. Ashley's academic success was evident in her speech as she challenged her class to be successful.

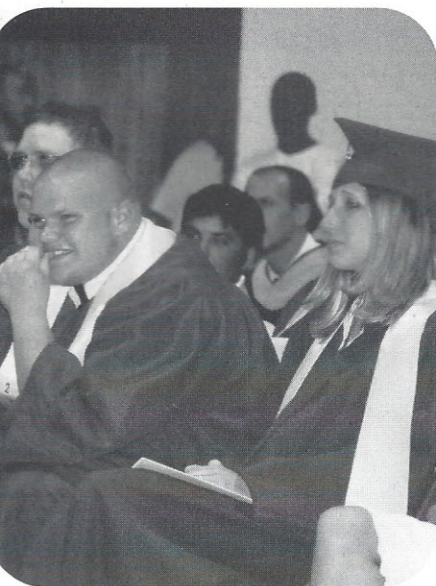

THE GOOD 'OL BOYS

Josh, Daniel, and Jim solemnly toward the camera as they await the beginning of the Baccalaureate service. This was a time to reflect on the past and look forward to the future.

STAND AND FACE THE FLAG

Graduates, Junior Marshals, and the audience stand to sing the National Anthem. This, along with prayer, opened the evening of commencement festivities.

THAT'S FUNNY!

Josh McCleary is obviously amused at what he sees on the screen. While some of the grads found this interesting and entertaining, others, like Andrea, shed tears.

Graduation

THE THREE MUSKETEERS

Andrea, Ruthie, and Gillian take time before Baccalaureate to pose for a picture. These girls, along with the other graduates, had mixed feelings about leaving RWA.

LOOKING BACK

Graduates watch with great interest as the powerpoint presentation is played. This visual presentation is well with Gillian's class history.
