

Last Will & Testament

We, the graduating class of Richard Academy, in the year Two Thousand and one, being of tired body and confused mind, on the twentieth day of May, do hereby declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

Brittni Anderson, do bequeath to Lea-the memory of all our many laughs, the ability to write the best inspirational notes ever, and my love for softball. To Melanie McMeekin- my number and position in softball. To Lewis- my awesome ability to dance. To Jill- the crazy memories of all our trips and my ability to stay out of trouble! To Wade- I leave my T.A. job. To Wade- I leave a hug and a kiss after every class and an awesome last year. To Perry Anne Hinson- the best years of your life and the ability to never stop trying! To Mrs. Wilder-leave to you my wonderful ability to tell the best April Fool's jokes ever, some hand out, all our special talks, and one of the awesome hit and run hugs when you were having a bad day! To Ms. Brown- I leave a bag of Goody powder for all those blows to the head you have!

Kyle Brazell, do bequeath to Josh Dickinson- my love of being a southern reminist and a peach cigar. To Price- my playing abilities. To Brenton L.- BBs to To Peays Ferry Road with. To Taylor- the times of one day beating me in a race. To Mrs. Brown- the hope that you can get a student next year to reach my level of high academic achievements. To Rachel Goldin-super, fantastic music ability.

Christa Nicole Douglas Branham, do bequeath to Jill- "Aye. Aye, Capn' ". To Wade- hold down "our side" of the line. To Cheerleaders- have fun! To Andrew- a friend and forever friendship. To RWA students- never give up on your dreams! To Mr. Little- laughter and "doo doo." To Mr. B.- fun on and off court or field. To Mrs. B.- my car to "ride through town." To Mrs. B.- laughter and friendship. To Mrs.
Hazen- patience. To Josh Dickinson- a wedawg from Gene's.

Lloyd Brown, do bequeath to Price- my table for practice so you might be able to beat me one day. To Ry- beach trips and the right to aggravate Mrs. Tant. To Mrs.
Tant- my "sexy blue jeans". To Taylor B.- ponds. To the Golf Team- my "Tiger Woods-like" skills. To Mike Segarra- a ten card. To Brenton- a whole bag of marshmallows. Future Graduates- honesty, integrity, and hope (the end will come soon). To RWA- many thanks for being my second family and home away from me for 14 years.

Meredith Brown, do bequeath to Jill- my love for basketball (remember, there's only one) and sweet tea. To Blythe- the ability to eat squeeze lollipops before games.
To Sallie- FIRE! To Ryan and Taylor- the ability to canoe in the snow. To Teachers-ability for having patience and thank you for teaching us in school and everyday. To Varsity Basketball Team- good luck. To Juniors- may you have the best year that you could ever have. To Mrs.
Mette and Mrs. Young- I'll miss you from answering the phones to putting the handbook in order. To the Underclassmen- never give up in anything you

I, Mary Gray Bunting, do bequeath to Mikey- my golfing ability and my love. To Martin- my pink curlers. To Damon- mine and Hannah's two seater bike. To Anna- a new back spot. To Sarah- a new friend in cheerleading and good luck! To Shealy-dancing lessons. To Frances- the ability to take care of my brother. To Blair- a bag of Skittles. To Joseph T.- peanut fudge sun-dae. To Kasey- my pictures of C.W.! To Ashley G.- all the boys you want. To the Junior Class- good luck and cherish the memories. To K-3- good luck in the future; I will miss ya'll!

I, Roe Coleman, do bequeath to Wade- my parking spot for the baddest Z71 in school, my passion for football, the desire and will to be the best you can be, and my love. To Will Coleman- a box of .22 bullets and the little bit of sense I've got. To Zack B.- my dirt bike skills. To Daniel Porter- half of a sunflower seed. To Ryan D.- a cast. To Buck, Max, and Trow- my gloves, bats, shirts, pants, etc... To Brenton - late night cage lights. To Martin- my awesome coon dog. To Caleb Chapman- my hair.

I, Joshua Monroe Dodson, do bequeath to Ashley Matthews- a life supply of pens and pencils. To Sallie- "sticky buns." To Tyler McCleary- the ability to turn on the air conditioner with your hat. To Allison Coleman- fun times in Spanish and the responsibility of making Ashley and Sallie behave. To Sarah B.- my camp jeep T-shirt.
To John Mark Mills- my knife collection.
To Nikhil- my chess playing talent. To Rachel Goldin- "sugar dots." To the Class of 2005- good luck next year. Enjoy these times and memories while you can; you grow up fast.

I, Lindsey Phillips Hamilton, do bequeath to the Varsity Volleyball team- some icy hot for camp and shanking privileges. To Taylor- my amazing golf skills and rides to school. To Brenton (Boo Boo)- a watch (12:00AM), Hershey bars and apple juice.
To Jill- "Beans." To Josh Dickinson- the Dark Room. To Joseph T.- my credit card.
To Brice- the hot pink Richard Simmons shorts. To Shealy- the glasscock. To Mrs.
Hazen- an English translator. To Tripp- a rabbit. To Damon- a horn for your bike. To Blythe- my dorm key. To the Class of 2005-good luck next year and enjoy every minute of it because it really does fly by. I'm going to miss ya'll!

I, Charles Mikell Jones Jr., do bequeath to Holly Twitty- my drive, determination, will to succeed, and my love. To Ry- my mad defensive back skills (you need them more than me!). To William L.- a box of dove shells, a tent, a knife, and a lighter! To Price- my attitude, a key to my house, and the ability to know when to shut up! To Lynchmob- all the fresh rock music and a bag of cheese waffles. To all future graduates- patience and hope!

I, Josh Keller, do bequeath to Felicia Harris- my will to succeed, hope for the future, and my drive to do well in school. To Blair Little- a big pack of skittles. To Anna Burns-my license to drive.

I, Andrea Rion Lyles, do bequeath to Kasey- gas for those NC road trips, my pimpin' skills, cheese (take care of it), and a thank you for always being there for me.
To Jordan- a big hug everyday, help your mom keep your sisters straight. To Lindsay- a bad of Reisens, box from the UPS man, and a new corona hat. To Lea- our word, keys to my invisible baby blue must-ang, and your lost sofa cushion. To Damon- some new magazines and helmet for your two seater bike. To Ashley G.- crackers. To Sally- take care of Kasey, some numbers, and a big hug! To Mrs.

McDonald- a bottle of tylenol and a BIG thanks for all of your help.

I, Joshua Robert McCleary, do bequeath to my "not so loving" brother Tyler- my love, will, dedication to football, and the ability to aggravate anyone at anytime. To Frances- my love, the title as my "little sister", the ability to always have a smile on your face, and the phrase "La Tee Da." To Mrs. Hazen- an extra hour in each day.
To Ben- my mad soccer skills. To Adrian and Thomas- rides from soccer games and practice.

I, Scooby Doo, do bequeath to Mrs.
Edwards- my love and Bon Jovi. To Tyler-a UNC hat, a new race car driver, my story telling ability, my ability to rock out and break glass, and my love for Limp Bizkit.
To Price- my 3rd amigo. To Ryan D.- 8 seconds. To Ry- "Look what I can do!" To Jill- my football pants. To Shealy- a Happy Meal. To Sallie- the ability to keep a "well invested man." To Lewis- my love for UNC.
To Beans- "Do I smell bacon?"

I, Brandi Medlin, do bequeath to Jill- a trip to Beans, some oreos and snow, signs, "Eh,eh,eh", and a hug. To Brice- a higher score, my grace, my ability to be a great captain next year, and a rolling bed. To Caroline- a softball glove and a ride home.
To Savannah- a ride home and a problem.
To Mrs. Hazen- a TA as great as me next year. To Trow and Max- someone to call you "Hazen child" and someone to tell you where your mom is. To Martin- someone to yell for you at your baseball games and stuff for your pockets. To Blair- a new big sister and some Skittles. To Brenton-my secrets and some graham crackers. To Lewis- the clicker. To the Varsity Cheerleaders- "Maskillz" and all the great memories we have. I love you! "Man over board!"

I, Brittany Melvin, do bequeath to Leigh Connor- a playing card for newspaper journalism. To Blythe- my clothes and my love for sports. To Tripp Cameron- a better attitude. To Gabby, Jacob, and Melanie-the best years of your lives. To Grace Wilkins- my athletic skills. To Gracie Glover- sliding shorts. To Jessica Hollis-sunflower seeds. To Heather Gilbert- my bike. To Allison Coleman- money for gum.
To Lea Allen- the Walk to Remember soundtrack. To Cassidy and Makenzie Branham- a candle for when the power goes out!

I, Ashley Coleman Mills, do bequeath to the Varsity Basketball team- a delicious Thursday night meal. To the Volleyball girls- another great season (even though it will be hard without Mopsy). To Brice- I leave MF, Center, 1st base, and my number 3 (they are all yours; take care of them.), along with some CU weekends next year.
To Jill- O-a double play, a ride in the captain's chair, some smaller sunglasses, someone else to make fun of and all of my love. To Blythe- a box of teddy grahams and a night without sleep with your name on it. To Lea- a late night fire drill and a "tater" to hit. To the rest of the softball girls- many successful seasons with lots and lots of BBQ! To John Mark and Allison-plenty of gas for the 20 mile trip we make to school everyday. To Catina- a zipper for her lip. To some selfless and brave person-I leave Poor Richard's Almanack and all the joys of editing it. To Nic, my love and many years of success at RWA. To the class of 2005- one of the fastest years of your life and some of the best memories in the world.

Make the most of it.

I, Hannah Lauren Morgan, do bequeath to Ben Morgan- memories to last a lifetime and the opportunity to achieve success. To Adrian- the right to play the silent game and never tell anyone about it. To Thomas W.- the right to be a "little boy" forever and the ability to speak Japan-ese. To Damon Ammons- the ability to wear a hat in school.
To the rest of the RWA family- the ability to cherish every moment of these few precious years.

I, Ruthie Phillips, do bequeath to Varsity Girls Basketball team- Good luck. To Blythe- a taxi. To Ally D.- someone to play "mercy" with. To Ryan D.- my sister. To Joseph T.- a road trip to Greenville. To Allison C.- someone to poke. To Lea- take good care of "G" for me. To Wade- my parking place. To Rachel- much love. To the Class of 2005- many wonderful memories and best wishes!

I, Gillian Simms, do bequeath to Courtney Sink- all the squirreliness in the world. To Frances- my love and best wishes in all you do. To Logan- my assistance whenever necessary. To Brice- a cushion for when you fall. To Jessica- a new leg, a permanent spot in my dorm room, hugs, kisses, and all my love! To Rachel- I leave you the best senior year, my love and support when ever you need it, a shoulder to cry on, a partner in crime, a date for dinner, Cadbury eggs, my scent and Frances! I will always be there for you!

I, Spanky Speagle, do bequeath to my sister- my love and ability to play sports.
To Chuck- "one of them things!" To Lewis F.- my ability to ball it up. To William- my ability to hit a baseball. To Taylor- I leave you my ability to pitch the baseball. To Price D.- a treadmill.

I, Jim Wagers, do bequeath to Wade- my 3-wood and bow hunting skills. To Will C.- new Scope and a box of 270 bullets. To Willy "Ball Game" Ladd- my love for baseball. To Brenton- my game pants. To Taylor- a fastball. To Dougy- an on-hand surgeon. To Martin- a new mitt. To Tripp- a large pre-game T-shirt. To Dewey- a lawn mower. To Ry- a new truck. To Reagan- my baseball hat. To Jill- "The Bronco"

I, Brock Williams, do bequeath to Brice Porter- my love and thoughts. To Will Coleman- the best 4-wheeler trails in the south. To Paul Cauldwell- my Ford (a real truck). To Josh Dickinson- my parking space. To the Junior class- my smarts in school and hope ya'll do well.

I, Adam Reed Williamson, do bequeath to Mrs. Wilder a hard time. To Joseph T.- summer. To Mikey Bunting- my golfing ability. To Tripp C. and Taylor B.- "Babla Babla."