

1. Bryson Pope and D.J. Moser show off their rocket to fellow seventh graders and some more onlookers.
2. During their program, the second graders put on a great show for the lower school.
3. Grace Wilder innocently observes the happenings at the annual Powderpuff game.
4. Along with the audience, Miss RWA participants were ecstatic when Lewis Frazier received the crown.
5. These future All-Star cheerleaders did a fantastic job cheering on the "guys" during the Powderpuff game.
6. To celebrate Veteran's Day, the third and fourth grades sang patriotic songs at the Court House.
7. The varsity football team joined Carolina Academy in their tradition of saying the Lord's Prayer following the game.
8. Jai Swearingen, Lindsay Parris, and Sally Morris assist some of the younger kids in RWA's own election booth.

Be Glorious