

© Does This Fit? ©

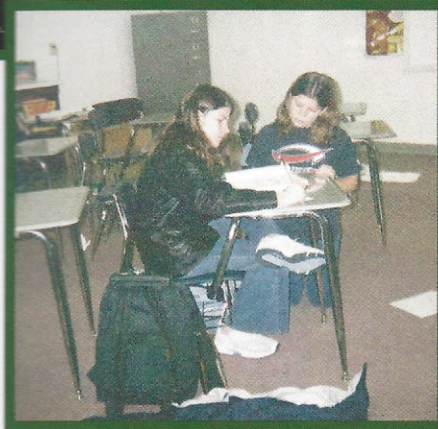

Some sixth graders work on a puzzle during some free time in the classroom.

© Shhhhh... ©

These students are focused and hard at work.

"Expect nothing. Live frugally on surprise."
-Alice Walker-

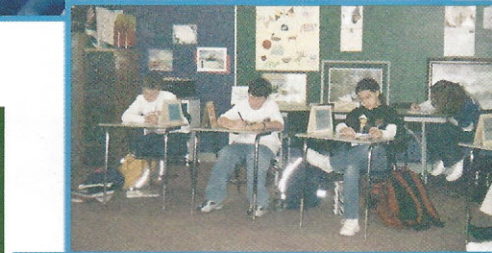

© Teamwork ©

Maggie and Melanie attempt to conquer a hard problem by working together.

© Sink or Swim ©

The students try hard to pay attention while Coach Sink teaches science class.

© Who's Got Spirit? ©

Brook, Britney, Savannah, and Katherine proudly show off their Eagle spirit.

© Just Workin' ©

The sixth graders are academically challenged in Mrs. Lou Ann Coleman's class.

© I Pledge Allegience... ©

They all stand to recite the Pledge of Allegience as school begins.

© E'A'O'L'E'S ©

These fun-loving guys come up with a unique and "hand-y" way to display their school spirit.

© Bookworm ©

Britney searches for some good reading material during library period.

What do you like best about sixth grade?

"What I like about 6th grade are the teachers. They are all very nice to me. The teachers make 6th grade the best school year ever." -Dillon Cail-

"What I like about the 6th grade is that we get to see different teachers everyday. We get P.E. more often during the week. 6th grade is fun." -Savannah Medlin-

"I like that we have 6 periods and a different teacher for each period." -Neeraj Singal-

"What I like about 6th grade are my teachers. I like P.E. everyday. I really like break and changing class. Playing sports against different schools is really fun." -Katherine Matthews-

