

© A Sweep Is as Lucky as Lucky Can Be! ©

Tyler sweeps up the blue tarp after the Square Dance.

© Mr. RWA Inoognito ©

Mr. RWA, Ryan Douglass, appears to be catching some zzzzz's on the way home from the Renaissance Festival.

"Some stories don't have a clear beginning, middle, or end. Life is about not knowing... having to change... taking the moment and making the best of it... without knowing what's going to happen next. delicious ambiguity..."
-Gilda Radner-

© Renaissance Men ©

Brian and Reed get into the spirit of the Renaissance Festival during a school field trip.

© Ring Ring! ©

Shealy, Price, and Mrs. Douglas get together to admire Price's new class ring during the ring ceremony reception.

How is your junior year different from the previous years?

"Well, for one thing, I'm not going to Fairfield Central High anymore. That's a big plus! The classes are also much harder...I've been making better grades."
-Amber Peak-

"It's more fun, more class unity, and more closeness between classmates. Teachers have become more like friends."
-Ryan Douglass-

"My junior year has been more complete than my freshman and sophomore years. I am enjoying it better due to the fact that I only have one more year left."
-Tripp Cameron-

"There hasn't been much difference from my freshman and sophomore years! I'm just getting closer to graduation day."
-Lindsay Matthews-

© Solemn Students ©

Junior class members are presented to the school and their parents as the Class of 2006 during the annual ring ceremony.

© We've Got Spirit! ©

The junior class girls show off the t-shirts they made for spirit week.

© Color My World ©

Rebecca and Allyson paint color wheels in Creative Arts class.

© The Fearsome Five ©

Jessica, Ashley, Lewis, Sally, and Anna gather together for a group picture at the Renaissance Festival.

