1. Bryson putts for par as the Fairfield Central and Trinity Christian golfers look on.
2. Mikey, the veteran member of the team as a sophomore, continued to play a consistent competitive game.
3. Brandon's love of the game and advanced skill level earned him post season accolades as a freshman. He not only was named as the team's medalist, but also was honored as a member of the SCISA All State Team.
4. A seventh grade member of the Eagle golf team, Bryson worked hard at improving his golf game and made valuable contributions to the program in his rookie season.