

1. The 6th graders gather around to listen to the tourguide while observing the Indian relics at Jamestown.
2. While visiting Yorktown, the group braves the cold weather to watch a musket demonstration.
3. Some of the group pose for a picture aboard one of the ships docked in the Jamestown harbor.
4. The group listens attentively to the explanation of how Indians hollowed out canoes.
5. The students relax from touring by taking a break in the hotel's hot tub.

6th Graders time travel to colonial Williamsburg and historic battlefields.
