"Hard Workin' Man"

-Brooks and Dunn-

I'm a hard workin' man. I wear a steel hard hat.
I can ride, rope, hammer, and paint.
Do things with my hands that most men can't.
I can't get ahead no matter how hard I try.
I'm getting really good at barely getting by.

Got everything I own by the sweat of my brow,
From my four-wheel drive to my cowboy boots.
I owe it all to my blue-collar roots.
I feel like I'm workin' overtime on a runaway train.
I've got to bust loose from this ball and chain.

I'm a hard, hard workin' man. I got it all on the line.
For a piece of the Promised Land,
I'm burnin' my candle at both ends.
'Bout the only way to keep the fire goin'
is to outrun the wind."
