

1. Ashley, Sally, and Anna "chill" on the beach after many long work sessions on planning the 2006 yearbook at the Jostens Workshop.
2. Unity and teamwork were the ultimate goals of the Camp Greenville senior trip, and from the looks of this picture, those goals were met.
3. Mrs. Ray happily hands out K-5 diplomas to all of her "graduating" students.
4. Mrs. Nicholson gives Corey a congratulatory hug as the recipient of the Heart of the Eagle award.
5. Much deserved recognition goes to Mrs. Melinda Brown who was selected as Wal Mart's Teacher of the Year.
6. Mr. Sam Meyers and the physics class took top prize for their roller coaster creation named TYPHOON during Physics Day at Carowinds.
7. The Class of 2005 gathers for one of their final group pictures during a graduation party at William Coleman's house.

“Love the change you wish to see in the world.”
-Mahatma Gandhi-