

Spirit Week & Homecoming

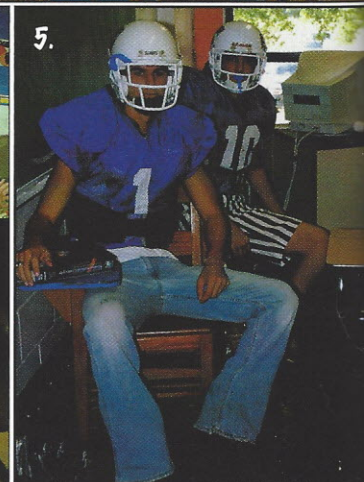

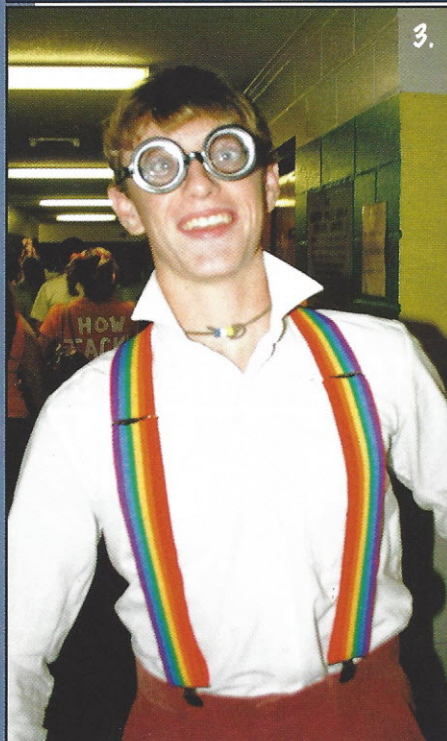

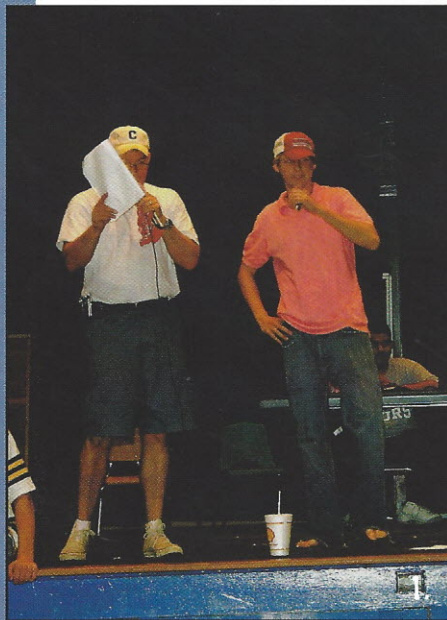

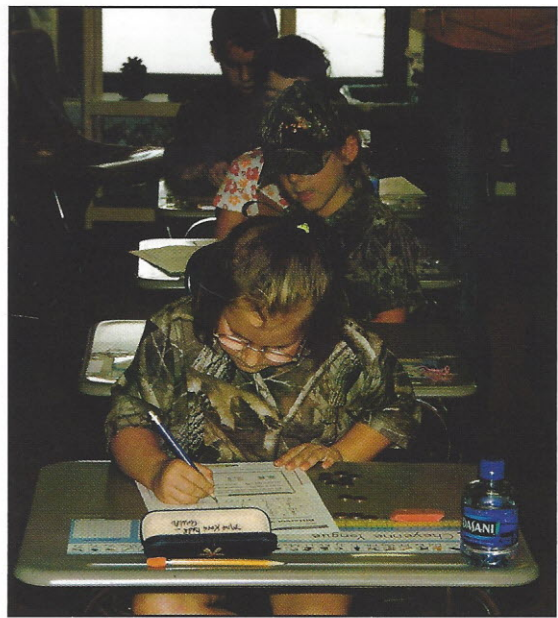

Richard Winn's Spirit Week took place October 3rd - 7th. Students were allowed to get downright crazy as they dressed up for College Day, Tacky Day, Class Color Day, Camouflage Day, and School Spirit Day. The Homecoming game and the crowning of Jill Wagers as the 2005-2006 Homecoming Queen culminated the week's activities. Also honored at the game were the players from the 1995 State Championship football team. It was the 10th anniversary of the school's first football state title.

Hunting for an "A"...

These young students continue to work hard in school even during Spirit Week.

Get Fired Up...

The cheerleaders help get the crowd "fired up" during the Homecoming week bonfire and auction.

1. Tripp Cameron waits to be sold during the Student Government bonfire and auction.
2. These Clemson students are out to prove that orange is the real deal.
3. Michael Robinson's geeky fashion was a normal sight to see on Tacky Day.
4. Hilary Cox's multi-colored ensemble was just one of the many unusual "get-ups" during Spirit Week.
5. Martin Caulder and William Ladd dress up as "hard-headed" football twins on Twin Day.
