

Throughout the season, the junior varsity and varsity football teams showed Richard Winn's competitive nature. The JV team was mainly comprised of a strong, hard-working group of freshman who led the young Eagles with their athletic abilities and experience. Likewise, the eight seniors, along with a number of veteran junior players, led the way for the varsity group. Both squads exhibited determination throughout the entire season despite the many setbacks they encountered. Though neither team's win-loss record at the end of the season was as good as they had hoped, both groups accomplished many positive goals. The JV team finished with a 3-4 season while the varsity, 4-7, fell one game short of making the playoffs. This season provided playing time and experience for the younger players on both teams and helped them prepare for another season of Friday night lights.
