

The junior varsity and varsity baseball teams had strong seasons. Both teams tried hard all season, fielding, hitting, bunting, pitching and catching in order to accomplish their goal of success. The JV baseball team tried their best, and experienced a season building for the future. The varsity baseball team could have been in the state championship round this year, if not for an incorrect call by an official during the playoffs. Nevertheless, the varsity baseball team had an overall victorious season. Many new additions were made to the team this year, adding to the skill level of the team. The group of players enjoyed each others' company, and had much fun on the bus rides to away games. Baseball has always been an important and exciting sport for Richard Winn, and, judging by the relative success of this season, it will be a loved sport for many years to come.
