“ Why did you choose to become a teacher, and what about teaching gives you the most satisfaction? ”

“I chose to become a teacher because I have a sincere desire to enable and hopefully inspire students to make a meaningful difference in the world. I hope my students leave my classroom and head into life healthy in knowledge, wealthy in confidence, and wise in choices...I am never satisfied. I am constantly looking for new and better ways to improve my instruction to hopefully impact their futures in a more significant manner.” ~ Shannon Wilder

“I chose to become a teacher because I enjoy working with students and helping them to discover their potential. I get the most satisfaction when I see students who not only have potential but decide to take it a step further and actually use it. If I can be any part of that, then I am satisfied, and I am where I am supposed to be!” ~ Margaret Porter

I knew from the age of 5 when I was in kindergarten at First Baptist Church in Chester that I wanted to teach K-5. I never changed my mind. I am a “drama queen” and get to express this every day in my room. We laugh and learn and love it!”
