

The True Meaning

As the shepherds bow before the Christ child, the show comes to a close. The hard work and practice put into this performance made this a memorable event for all involved.

Grandpa Tim

Tim Raines speaks his part in the play. The makeup done by Miss Pullano made everything more realistic.

Sing for Joy

The elementary children voice the sounds of the season. Dressed in Christmas colors, these kids were ready for Christmas, both inside and out.
