

Heave, Ho!

These fifth graders show the extent of their strength as they pull on this rope as hard as they can. Tug-o-war was a favorite for everyone that participated in Field Day.

Moving Along

These second graders try their luck with the partner skates. Each person who participated in this race learned the value of teamwork.

Taking a Break

Parker Amick enjoys a much-needed food break. The students surely worked up an appetite playing as hard as they did.
