

Making a Joyful Noise

These third graders showcase their singing talent during the spring music program. This was a fun opportunity for these students to make a joyful noise together.

Sing It Out!

Richard Winn's third grade class tries their luck chanting many beautiful melodies. The group enjoyed this cultural experience.

Noteable Melodies

Richard Winn's pre-school class above, take their turn by joining in the musical fun. Their little voices proved precious to all who listened to their melodies.

All Dressed Up

The first graders were decked out in costumes for their spring music program. They had a lot of fun pretending to be creatures of the wild.

Rockin' Robins

Peyton Gilbert and Tristan Robinson show themselves as a striking resemblance to our feathered friends. Each enjoyed participating in this program.
