What's your favorite part about 6th grade?

Taylor Ingle

"My favorite part about 6th grade is that we are now able to change classes without being watched by teachers!"

Julia Moser

"My favorite part of 6th grade is that we get included with the older kids."

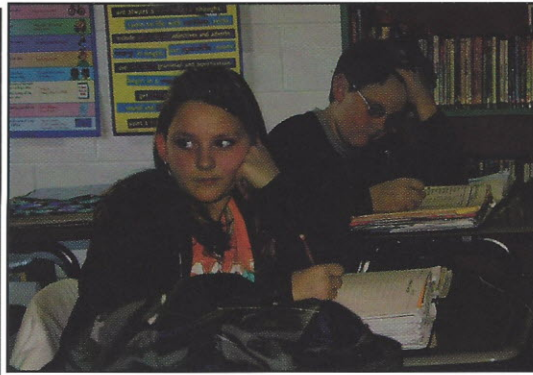

Blake Little

"My favorite part about 6th grade is that we receive more privileges than last year."

Josh Schneider

"We get to go to the morning assembly in the gym, and we have break now too!"

Caught Ya!

Julia Moser is found day-dreaming during Mrs. Grant's class. Although the sixth grade had wandering eyes at times, they worked hard throughout the school year.

Make a Joyful Noise

Taylor Ingle and Megan Guy sing enthusiastically in the Christmas program this past December. This year's program featured a play that was directed by Ms. Polano.

Studios Schneider

Josh Schneider is deep in thought during one of Mrs. Grant's lectures. Both 6th grade teachers were new to Richard Winn this past year and were welcomed into the RW family.
