

Ready to Soar

Members of the senior class excitedly wait to make their final walk down the gym aisle as students. After years of "nesting" together, they were eager to spread their wings to the next phase of their lives.

Group Time

The Class of 2007 pauses to take one of their last group pictures together just before the Baccalaureate service. This year's service was once again held at the Bethel ARP Church, and the sermon was delivered by RWA alumni Rev. Chris Spires, Class of 1998.

A Time of Reflection

Anna Burns, the Class Salutatorian, delivers the class history in a rather poetic and unique way. Throughout their time at Richard Winn, the seniors created many memorable moments.

"Lift Your Voices, Join the Throng"

The Class of 2007 sings the alma mater as official alumni. It was a proud and notable moment in each of their lives.
