

CLASS HISTORY

As we gather here today,
With full hearts and inspired minds,
We pause to remember
Some of our wonderful times.

Knowing today is just a beginning,
And definitely not the end,
We have made a collection of friends,
On whom we can surely depend.

Our most unforgettable boy,
Is the first one of the bunch.
Joseph is philosophical, unique, and smart,
And that's way more than just a hunch.

His best bud, Tommy,
Is the strongest football player around,
He likes soccer too, but don't get him wrong,
Challenge him to paintball, and you're going down.

Tommy's twin sister Ashley,
Our class president and ice queen to boot,
Is fun, cute, and Le-baron driving,
She's a volleyball player to whom we all salute!

We are under another president's reign too,
Adrian is Citadel-headed and he likes to put us in awe,
Our very own country caveman is a gentleman for sure,
If you're lucky, to you he might even say
"Get 'em gee gaw!"

Adrian's homelycoming sponsor was Kim,
A sweet volleyball girl who likes to help Cheri,
She can be seen walking around town,
And to Dierks Bentley she hopes to one day marry.

Another volleyball girl, and a great one at that,
Blythe is young and living it up,
A basketball player headed to FMU,
She amazes us on the court with her great lay-ups.

Her great friend and last name sharer, Price,
Likes to spend his fall Friday nights under the lights
Of the football field, and with his laid back style,
Seeing him here tonight is quite a sight!

A football teammate with a lot of spunk,
Ben Morgan is definitely the wittiest out of the class,
Headed for Charleston and the Citadel,
Ben better make sure he knows how to polish brass!

An all-star athlete, MVP in every sport,
With the Citadel on his mind,
William has a way with the ladies,
And with his hunting skill, is surely one of a kind.

William's superstar homecoming date,
A girl with a lot of class,
Rebekah loves to make us all goodies,
And her impression is one that will always last.

Jerrica Boulware hails from Chester,
And always has something funny to say,
Winning the "Class Clown" surnamative,
Jerrica is clever in every way.

Her good friend Mikey,
Holds golfing as his favorite sport.
Mikey came out of his shell recently,
He is definitely no longer the shy kind of sort.

Brittani Cook is country born and bred,
She loves to take pictures at every available chance,
And when she takes Spartanburg Methodist by storm,
They had better be ready in advance!

Frances is also living in Spartanburg next year,
This little bundle of energy is a little boy crazy,
"Miss Personality" is always sporting her John Deere,
And Frances was famous for her role as Daisy.

David is known as the strongest man alive,
And we've enjoyed the Rainwater jokes every morning,
He's our most dangerous driver and our very own Chuck Norris,
This "King of Nicknames" comes with a fair warning.

One of the first people to coin the phrase "Rudy",
Martin is undoubtedly our class clown,
But don't let this boy fool you,
Because under his funny cover,
He's a charming guy deep down.

Another energetic one of the bunch,
Blair is blonde and bubbly for sure,
She's a skittle-loving creative poet,
And through anything, she'll certainly endure.

Christine is another English enthusiast,
Unique in every way,
Her soft-spoken but incredibly strong opinions
Will carry her far someday.

Another strongly opinionated person
Is our very own valedictorian,
This rapping and studious basketball player
Is Furman bound with his best friend, our salutatorian.

Lauren, or should I say "Miss Color Coded",
Is famous for her faulty knees and impeccable study skills,
Having been our class treasurer for as long as I can remember,
She's all about counting some bills!

Daniel is truly in love,
With his truck, of course!
You can see this baseball state champion cruising around town,
Greenville Tech will love him, hands down.

Kayla Mosley, a Richburg girl at heart,
Is outspoken, opinionated, flirty, and true,
Soon to be a Charleston Southern cheerleader,
This girl is going places; she's no fool.

Manny Thompson, a newbie of our class,
Stole the show at prom with his white suit and cane,
Sailing through the McDonald's drive-thru almost daily,
Manny will most likely live in fame.

Another famous one in the class,
Measuring 7 feet 3 inches tall,
Spud is our most improved basketball player,
He certainly excels at dunking the ball.

Tri-athlete Michael Robinson
Played in the football Shrine Bowl this year,
Headed to Newberry College in the fall,
Michael is one of the most athletic guys in

Thomas Garner, a fellow baseball state champion,
Knows how to throw a good pitch,
By being Grayson's little sweetheart,
Thomas has surely found his niche.

Thomas's baseball buddy Matt
Is the laid-back type of guy,
Throwing strikeouts left and right,
This Chester boy sure does like sleep, oh

The other laid-back one in our class, Kala,
Likes to play volleyball and fish,
Headed to FMU in the fall,
This southern sweetie is every parent's wish

Rosemary Watts is a new class member
She's spunky and shows a lot of style,
USC Aiken better be ready for a good time,
Because Rosemary is sure to make everyone smile

Lastly, there's your poet,
Little old me,
A girl bent on changing the world,
I hope this poem has been fun,
At least to a tolerable degree!

And so, class of 2007,
Live well, laugh often, and love much,
Have fun wherever life takes you,
And make sure to use your old friends as a

Whenever you need a helping hand,
Look back on your high school classmates,
Get excited for the future,
And get to it! Your whole life awaits.

Anna Burns
Class Salutatorian
