

Michael Robinson

You are young and life is beginning
 In a wonderful way for you,
 The future reaches its welcoming hand
 With new, challenging things to do.
 And here is a prayer for you
 That you'll walk with God every day,
 Remembering always in whatever you do
 There is only one true, righteous way---
 For God in His wisdom and mercy
 Looked down on His children below
 And gave them the privilege of choosing
 The right or the wrong way to go...
 So trust in His almighty wisdom
 And enjoy the fruit of His love---
 And life on earth will be happy
 As you walk with the Father above.

Helen Steiner Rice

Go with God, Michael, and always remember
 He will always love you and we will, too.
 We're so very proud of you and all you have accomplished.

Mom, Dad, and Mackenzie

