

RainH₂O

Class of 2007

For David

Your friends call you "Rainwater"
They tease you about signs that say
"STOP"

But to the rest of your family
You're just our little "Raindrop".

Our family has been on quite a journey
Georgia being your start
Five states and 18 years later
South Carolina has your heart.

You've always made us very proud
In everything you do
Just don't forget "whose you are"
As you're going on to something new.

You are our one and only
That hasn't always been easy we know
We may have held on a little tight
Not ever wanting to let go.

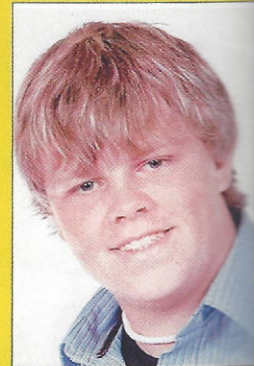

The journey you've been on
Will only make you stronger
But if its alright with you
We'll hold you just a little longer.

Where did the time go?
Why did it go so fast?
While you're planning your future
We're still holding onto your past.

The thought of you growing up
Is not so easy to take
But the memories that you leave with us
Are the foundation of new ones to make.

The next leg of your journey
The destination is yet unknown
But we know as Christ as your Guide
You will not make the trip alone!

We Love You —Mom & Dad

Your family is proud of you! Go Gamecocks!
