

The Producers

Behind every great production there is a team of people who work tirelessly to ensure the best possible outcome. These people dedicate a large part of their time and energy to making sure that the show goes off without a hitch. At Richard Winn, this team consists of the members of the faculty and staff. From the director, Headmaster Chris Thoma, to members of stage crew like Lonzell "Flash" Robinson, the faculty and staff are a group of some of the most dedicated people in education. So if you like what you see, then thank a faculty member for...
