

ACT III

Springtime brings new life and new beginnings. Students made their way back to school after Spring Break with renewed energy and drive. Life at Richard Winn seemed to be going in fast forward as the semester was packed with spring sports, a talent show, a "Spring Fling" dance, and of course, prom. As students entered their final semester of the year, the seniors prepared to say "goodbye" to high school and "hello" to a new future. It was evident that after the calm of winter, everyone was coming to life and

...springing into action.

Spring Trimester 103