We Don't Fit In; We Stand Out!

Staring Her Down

Sophomore Grace Wilkins stares the base runner back to first base. Grace's athletic skills and youth make her an asset behind the plate for future seasons.

Ready or Not, Here It Comes

Senior Kasey Parris delivers the ball to the plate. Kasey's dedication to the game and to her teammates was evident when she continued to pitch to the end of a game after a bad injury to her pitching hand.
