

Mrs. Rowe plays a game with her kindergartners. It was an exciting time as it was their first time coming to school.

The fifth grade gets right down to work in Mrs. Coleman's class. Their hard work helped them to excel throughout the school year.

Coach Porter explains the rules of his class to his students. Coach Porter was the strength and conditioning coach for the high school grades.

Tenth graders catch up with one another outside of Mrs. Wilkins' classroom. The first day was a time for friends to be reunited after a long summer away from each other.
