

1. Jonathan Love enjoys a horseback ride after his hard work in the gym.

2. The middle school students enjoy a dance during the square dance.

3. First prize winners' artwork of the art show hung in the gym for all to enjoy.

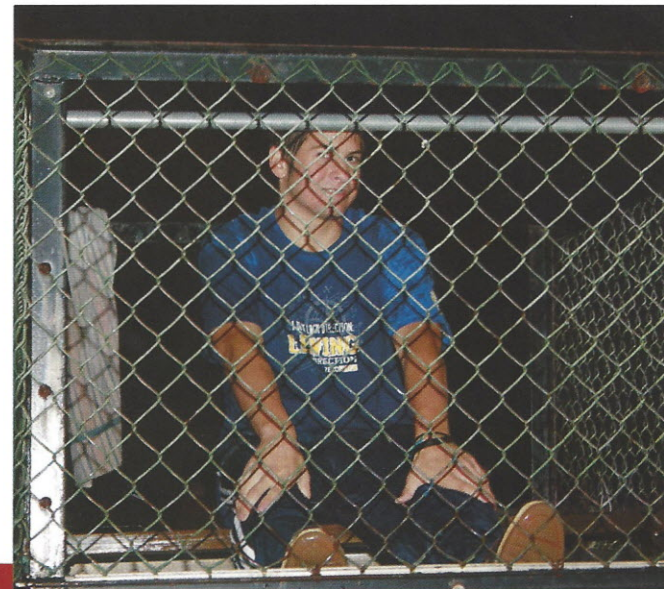

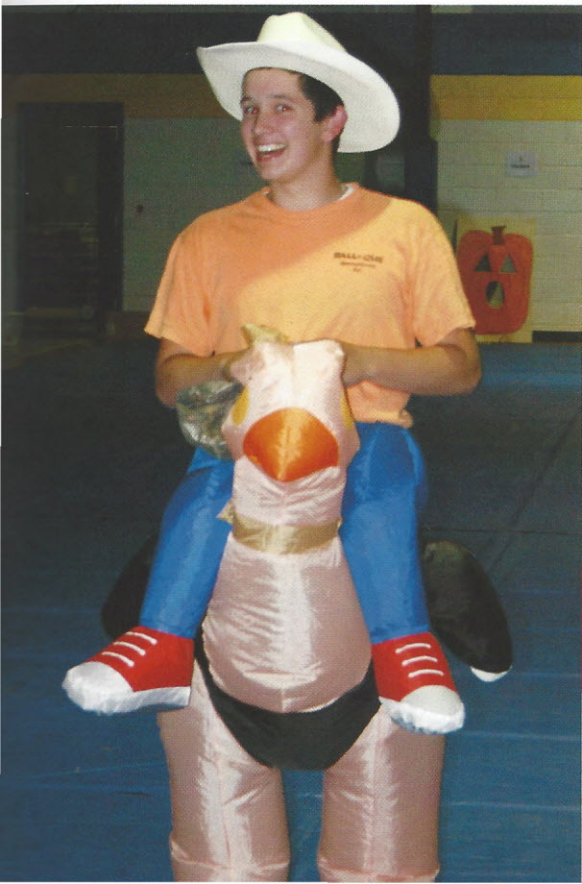

4. Members of the PTO help people make their purchases during their successful fundraiser.

I thought the Square Dance went well, but D.J. in his ostrich suit was the highlight of the night."
-Brittany Speagle, 11th

It was great getting back to a Harvest Festival type format of the old days with the Country Store."
-Mrs. Martha Ladd

Making a Splash
Junior Addison Cudd sits in the dunking booth waiting for his next splash into the water. The dunking booth was a fun event for the kids more involved with the Square Dance.

Ready to Ride
DJ Moser greets the Square Dance arrivals as they walk into the gym. DJ caused many laughs as he paraded around wearing his ostrich suit.