If you could be a teacher for one day, what would be the first thing you would change?

Mc I would change how the teachers don't give respect. I would never intend to disrespect or embarrass any youngsters.
McNair Coleman

Rp If I could be a teacher, I would give NO homework! I would be a mean teacher; I wouldn't let my students interrupt me, and I would smack their hands with a ruler if they were rude, but I wouldn't give homework.
