

Competition

"The best part about going to competition was getting to watch all of the other squads. It helped us learn from them and grow as a team. It was a really great experience!"
-Codie Revis

"To me the best part of competition was performing. It was so much fun going out on the mat and performing in front of the judges and everyone else!"
-Sarah Coleman

RAISE 'EM HIGH

During their performance at the cheer competition, the varsity cheerleaders take it to the top in a cheerleading pyramid. These girls showed their strength and spirit like never before while performing in front of the judges.

1. Blake Little, Savannah Medlin, and Brooke Smith put their hands together to lead the crowd in a cheer.
2. Vicky Durham puts a big smile on for the crowd.
3. During a pep rally, Savannah Medlin shows her spirit in hopes for a winning game that night.
4. Sarah Grier soars high in a cradle.
5. Flashing a happy facial expression for the judges, Sarah Grier soars during a routine at the competition.
6. The girls conjure up some spirit from the students in the pep rally.
7. Brooke Smith displays a spunky facial expression while showing off her moves.
8. Blake Little leads the squad on the sideline with a cheer for the crowd.
