Overcoming Obstacles

Coming off a successful season the previous year, the Eagles endured somewhat of a disappointing season due to many injuries, outbreak of flu, and other obstacles.

Coach Porter commented on this season saying, "We had missed opportunities. There were three games that we should have won which would have put us in the playoffs. We battled too many injuries and sicknesses, and it was hard to replace the ones who were not able to play since there was not much experienced depth. A positive aspect of the season was that the team did a good job carrying on an established tradition of working hard with good senior leadership."

The Eagles played a number of teams that outnumbered and outsized them; the loss of some experienced players due to illnesses hindered them further. However, their hardworking spirit closed the gap with some of the larger teams. The Eagles will lose eight seniors to graduation but look forward to rebound next season.
