

9.

10.

11.

12.

5.

H harmony

We Don't Mess Around

Skill, excitement, and ambition - all terms that describe the Eagles' volleyball team this season. The girls barreled through an intense regular season, winning fifteen of their seventeen games. They aimed to be the best and eventually secured a spot in the State Championship game against their rival, Spartanburg Christian. The State Championship game proved to be a fight to the finish, but unfortunately, did not come out in the Lady Eagles favor; they lost 14-16 in the fifth game. The season proved to be a successful one, despite the disappointing loss.

"This team by far is the best team I've ever been on. We were all each other's best friends. The entire team actually sobbed on Senior Night because we knew that it would be the last time we played on our home court together. I couldn't have asked for better teammates, and going to the State Championship was just icing on the cake," said senior captain Grace Wilkins.

The 2009 State Runner Up Richard Winn volleyball team certainly proved time and time again this season that "they don't mess around."

9. Emily Locklair reaches back for a pass to set up the next play. 10. Grace Wilkins positions herself under the ball to send a free ball back over the net. 11. Courtland Smith demonstrates good form while making an accurate pass. 12. Brittany Speagle and Grace Wilkins congratulate each other on another point. 13. Grace Wilkins gets up high for the block against King. 14. Kat Matthews dives to save a pass while Carol Ann Elliott backs her up. 15. Lacey Clack hits a downball against Spartanburg Christian. 16. Torri Mann concentrates on her serve during the Greenwood Christian game.

13.

14.

15.

16.