

A
ambition

JV Boys

Basketball Reason

"I play basketball because I have worked hard at it for so long and have gotten better over the years. This year I have stepped up because I am serious about this sport!"
-Reid Johnson

"My dad played in college, and he started teaching me when I was younger. I have always liked it and have been playing ever since."
-Josh Bishop

TAKIN' IT TO THE HOOP

Sophomore Alex Douglas uses his height to power up above the Greenwood Christian opponent. Alex was a valuable component of the JV boys' team this year.

1. Austin Knox fights through the opposing players to make a shot. 2. The JV boys leave the locker ready for a win. 3. Josh Bishop handles the ball as he drives to the basket. 4. Covenant defenders attempt to block Logan Gibbons' jump shot. 5. Focused, Hunter Gibbons gets set to shoot a basket. 6. Point guard Jason Branham, fires up a shot from the top of the key. 7. Freshman Reid Johnson goes up for a layup during their game against Greenwood Christian. 8. Jeet Mehta sets up to nail a three-pointer in the Newberry defender's face.

Leaps and Bounds