

Kirasten Blanton is the first to whom my words will give life
And I will personify her with no strife
A petite and quiet girl with a sweet smile
Her pleasant disposition will cheer you for quite a while.

Lindsay Timms, like Kirasten, is a little reserved
But give her a horse and a different person shall be observed
Skilled in the saddle she is indeed
As she flies around the corral with great speed
Lindsay has a twin, Zach is his name

He is one of our country boys with no shame
Hunting is what he likes to do
If he is out in the woods, he won't be blue

Jordan Crawford shares Zach's love of the outdoors
Bass Pro Shop is probably one of his favorite stores.
Up in a stand or out in a boat is when he is most happy
Shooting a deer or catching some bass and crappie

John David Hunter rounds out our country boys
In most classes he's good and doesn't make too much noise
But in his truck he is not quite the same
If on the road you see red flash fly by, he is probably the one to blame

On the topic of speeding, a few more names come to mind.
Amanda Haynes is someone you will never get stuck behind.
While driving her mustang she is slightly crazy

Out from behind the wheel she is as peaceful and quaint as a daisy
Kelsey Ray is a wild driver, too
Sometimes I wonder if of the speed limit she has a clue
Kelsey like Lindsay loves riding horses
Racing around three barrels in a ring is one of her favorite discourses

Kayla Branham is also an equestrian at heart
With her horse named Monkey she sets herself apart
An avid Carolina fan, toward Clemson she has built a barrier
However, this time next year she will be a Wofford Terrier.
To continue with horse lovers, Samantha Truesdale I shall describe
If you want her to do something, a trail ride would be a good bribe

She is a country girl at heart
And this is a lifestyle I doubt from which she will part
Bryson Pope calls Chester home and is one of our four Citadel guys

To many of us his decision was quite a surprise.
A funny, positive person who will brighten your day
He is talented on the golf course and will shock you with his skilled play

Jonathan Love is the other Chester boy who is Citadel bound
This past year, out of class is where he was most often found
He can be a little wild, for he is a kid at heart
Hopefully after next year from this personality he won't depart

G. Coleman is headed to Charleston as well
Down there with the baseball team is where he will dwell
G. probably set a record with the 16 years he spent at this school
He's probably so ready to get out of here that even El Cid sounds cool

Buck Coleman is our last Citadel-headed classmate
Down there he definitely won't be showing up to class late
Buck is a guy who loves to party, play baseball, and have fun
Good luck, man, but down there, of those things you will be having none

A funny girl Lacey Clack definitely is
She will laugh at anything, even a pop quiz
Her sense of humor isn't hard to see
And that is why Class Clown we voted her to be
Lacey has a partner in crime, DJ Moser is his name
If there is disruption in class, this clown is most likely to blame
His sense of humor is in a different league
He can make jokes all day without showing the slightest fatigue

Reagan Railey can be described as positive, pretty, and rarely without a smile,
She is extremely intelligent, someone not easy to beguile.
If for some reason you want to hear Reagan sing a song,
Turn on some 80's music and she will be imitating Michael Jackson before long.

Tanner Cantrell is someone who is energetic and ready to get involved,
She is not one to leave a dispute unresolved.
An experienced laborer in the fast food domain,
She worked at Bojangles, but quit because toward that job she had much disdain.

Morgan McDougald can be described in a single word: spunky
She is very spirited, and almost as loud and spastic as a monkey
This personality can be easily seen in mock trial
The way she destroys a witness will just make one smile

Addison Cudd is one of our guys from Chester
Play him in golf and he will make you look quite the jester
He is headed to USC-L because of this skill
Playing his favorite sport in college will be a definite thrill

Haleigh Williford is a girl with an even-keel and a level-head,
She does not get worked up over things that others would usually dread.

There is, however, one thing that causes Haleigh much grief.
Clowns terrify her, and if the world did not have them, to her it would be a relief.

Catina Gibson is quite an outgoing gal
With a voice that can grab your attention as easily as a root canal
Many may know her by means of her super fan mother
But get to know Catina herself and you will discover a person like no other

Ryan Davis is a really neat fellow
