

And has a disposition that's really quite mellow
He is a great friend to anyone who knows him
He puts others first on even the slightest whim
Jody Matthews is usually pretty chill
But there are some things that will get him in your grill
He is pretty good at some soccer
And I challenge someone to find something as messy as his locker
We have a future college football player graduating today
Up at North Greenville Douglas (Cookie) Peake will play
This kid was crazy on the field during fall Friday nights
And in a few months, he will be playing under stadium lights MacKenzie Robinson loves basketball and will challenge anyone to a shoot out
He is skilled in this sport, that is no doubt
This kid can also dance
The moves he throws down always deserve a second glance
Michael Sanders is a pretty cool guy
And he has a pretty sweet British accent, this you can't deny
He loves playing soccer and lifting weights, too
Growing a beard like his is something I wish I could do
Will Hemlepp's creativity is what sets him apart.
His colorful personality will give you a start.
He was clearly blessed in his creation
With great skill in the art of oral interpretation
Brock Sherrod is like Will,
In the sense that her creativity penetrates you like a drill Expressing herself is a must
For Brock, being artistic is something in which you can trust.
Sarah Phillips is a young lady who is typically quiet and nice,
But get her selling some sweet sushi and about this description you will think twice
She is a neat, fun person to be around
Who would enjoy nothing better than a night on the town
Kristen Keller is also a girl of petite size
To have her on your softball team would be quite a prize
This season she made some impressive catches in center field Hitting the ball to her is something to which the other team would yield
Rebecca Connor is Kristen's best friend
The two of them in Becca's red bug is a sight on which you can depend
Becca is a girl who is sweet as iced tea
But possesses a temper that can sting like a bumble bee
Caroline Bryson is a very sweet girl
But on the witness stand she will give any attorney a whirl
While toward her many height jokes have been made
In her small frame exists an intelligence for which many would trade
Kelly Cooper is a girl set in her ways, and confident in her beliefs.
If you challenge these, she will debate her point without reliefs.
Choosing her words with care,

Any opponent of her argument will be given a scare.
Brittany Speagle is not afraid to speak her mind.
She is outspoken but still extremely kind.
Although for her, many guys would fall,
She would only allow Philip Wilkins or Coach Copeland to beat out them all.
Jessica Durham can be described as pretty, sweet, and thin
This year she has had to give at least twenty new cars a spin
If you want to find her, try looking at her workplace, Sammy
Jo's
She reminds everyone of how her love of that place continually grows
Mary Goldin is extremely motivated, and always willing to work,
She will show the same effort whether she is a CEO or a desk clerk.
Her Christian faith is one of the strongest I know.
Her humble self provides a fine example of how we all must in Christ grow.
Grace Wilkins is proactive and very outgoing,
She loves being out on the town in a new dress that is flowing.
Crazy, loud, random, loud, wild and loud are some words that come to mind
When thinking of Grace qualities a stranger would easily find.
Now, to wrap up this skillet poem I shall quickly run through
A short description of this narrator, me, who goes by the name
Drew
Tall, lanky, awkward and a little sarcastic are adjectives that impart
A simple sketch from which this characterization can start
A strong Christian man is what I desire to become
And to avoid the temptations to which many succumb.
Doing this alone is impossible, and without faith in God, I would definitely fall short.
Thankfully He has provided me with many classmates in which I can find support.
That is a pretty short summary of the people in our class
Today we, a united group of individuals, stand.
Brought together by this school, we are locked hand-in-hand
The memories we share bind us all
Though we will be apart come this fall
We have become a single unit, with each person benefiting the entire
Though, for now, we as a team must retire
I truly believe that to each other, we are all a gift from God,
And have prepared ourselves for this new path that we will soon tread
As we move out along our separate roads, we will grow apart,
But never will we lose the alma mater that unites us in heart.
