

Grace Tillman Wilkins

Dear Grace,
More than 27 years ago, Daddy and I heard a sermon in which the minister defined grace as the unmerited favor of God. When we named you, we remembered those words, and over the years, I have thought about how well they applied to you. You truly have been our blessing from God.

There are so many reasons that we are proud of you, but above them all is your wonderful zest for life. You see joy in the world and you have brought that joy to us. You have surprised us, enchanted us, and delighted us for seventeen years!

You are excited to begin this next phase of growing up and you should be. It will be a wonderful adventure in a wonderful world!

With hearts full of love for you,
Mama and Daddy
