

Freshman Anna Grey Walters hoists up a flag signaling a tackle. A second year player, she was a defensive barrier to the Ice offense.

Fire coach Dillon Cail meets with his team prior to the game to discuss strategy. He, along with classmates Andy Taylor and Cole Abell, directed the Fire team to Katherine Matthews uses her speed to run the ball around the end in an attempt to escape Ice defenders and gain as many yards as she can.

The Fire team seniors, all "fired up," line up to meet the middle of the field for the coin flip and to discuss playing rules and regulations with Head Official Roe Coleman.

